Gluten/Dietary Cautious Guide

PLEASE READ: We have created this menu to help you make diet-conscience selections. The ingredients used to make these dishes should not contain any wheat or gluten. We take preparing dishes, when it comes to any food allergy or special dietary need, very seriously. Please note that there is always the possibility of a risk of contact with gluten through common cooking and preparations areas anywhere you eat out. We are unable to guarantee that any menu selection will be 100% gluten free.

If you do have a specific dietary need or concern, please let your server know when placing your order so he or she can speak with the kitchen manager about how to handle the situation properly.

We offer Gluten Free Buns available for an additional $1.50. The buns are certified gluten, nut, soy, and dairy free.

We also offer Daiya shredded cheese substitute available as an alternative to any of our menu items containing cheese for an additional $0.75. Daiya cheese substitute is certified dairy, gluten, and soy free & vegan.

Please also note that all of our deep-fried menu items are made using shared fryer oil. Any item listed below will be denoted with an asterisk () if it has been fried or has an ingredient in it that has been fried.
